16.2. EANASC Chair

The EANASC Chair is responsible for guiding the group to reach consent through the CBDM Process, cultivating an atmosphere of respect, and various other administrative duties. The Chair's primary tools are the CBDM Model, which appears earlier in this document, a firm hand, a calm spirit, and a clear mind.

- 16.2.1. 3 years uninterrupted clean time at the time of election.
16.2.2. Willingness to commit to a 1-year term of service.
16.2.3. Past experience as either the Vice Chair of the EANASC for a full term or service as a Subcommittee Chair for a full term within the last 6 years.
16.2.4. Familiar with all NAWs approved handbooks (Public Relations, H&I, Literature Committee, etc).

16.3. EANASC Vice-Chair

The primary responsibility of the EANASC Vice-Chair is the coordination of the area Subcommittees. The Vice-Chair keeps in regular touch with the Chairs of each Subcommittee to stay informed of their projects and challenges, attending Subcommittee meetings whenever possible. If disputes arise with a Subcommittee or between Subcommittees, the EANASC Vice-Chair helps find solutions to them. The Vice-Chair works closely with Subcommittee chairs when they prepare their annual reports and budget proposals. The Vice-Chair is also responsible to assist the EANASC Chair in conducting EANASC Meetings. The Vice-Chair pays close attention to peoples' body language and reactions so that the body may come to a more complete proposal, embodying all viewpoints, and to conduct EANASC meetings in the Chair's absence.

16.4. EANASC Secretary

The EANASC Secretary handles all paperwork, a formidable job. Their first responsibility is to take clear, accurate minutes of area committee meetings and distribute those minutes to all committee participants within a reasonable period of time after each meeting. The EANASC Secretary shall also be responsible for updating any changes to this document on a monthly basis as approved by the groups.

Because effective communication is an ideal we strive for, Secretaries should email minutes to EANASC participants. They will need to keep an updated email list of participants' email addresses.

- 16.4.1. 2-years uninterrupted clean time at the time of election.
- 16.4.2. Willingness to commit to a 1-year term of service.
- 16.4.3. Familiar with all NAWS approved handbooks (Public Relations, H&I, Literature Committee, etc).

- 16.5.3. Familiar with all NAWS approved handbooks (Public Relations, H&I, Literature Committee, etc).

16.6. EANASC Treasurer

The EANASC Treasurer's job is critical to the Committee's work. Because of the added responsibility of handling money associated with service as Treasurer, it's especially important that EANASC select the Treasurer with care. If the EANASC selects someone who is not capable of handling the job, then the EANASC is at least partly responsible if money is stolen, EANASC expenses are not paid, or if funds are not properly accounted for. It's recommended that the EANASC elect people to this position who are financially secure, good at managing their personal finances, inspire the trust of EANASC, and have substantial clean time. Experience in business, accounting, bookkeeping, or as a successful group treasurer is also very helpful. The Treasurer receives contributions from the groups, administers the EANASC's chequing accounts, pays the rent for the EANASC's meeting facility, reimburses the EANASC

Admin and Subcommittee Admin for their budgeted expenses, keeps careful records of all transactions, and reports on the financial condition of the EANASC at each of its meetings. As the administrator of the EANASC's unified general fund, the Treasurer is also responsible for preparing an annual budget for the EANASC. The Treasurer's Handbook, available from the WSO contains a more detailed description of the Treasurer's job and most of the forms Treasurers need for keeping their records.

- 16.6.1. 5-years uninterrupted clean time at the time of election.
- 16.6.2. Willingness to commit to a 1-year term of service.
- 16.6.3. Has read the Treasurer's Handbook.

- 16.7.4. Familiar with all NAWS approved handbooks (Public Relations, H&I, Literature Committee, etc).

16.8. Regional Committee Member (RCM)

Regional Committee Members (RCMs) are just that: they serve as the core of the Regional Service Committee (RSC), a body which coordinates service forums throughout the Region, is responsible for the regional convention. The RSC also serves year around as a contact point between WSO and local services.

RCMs keep their areas in touch with the larger world of NA by providing information on activities in neighbouring areas, functions being sponsored by the RSC, reports relevant to Subcommittee affairs, and important issues being discussed at various levels of service. Both the region and its areas depend on RCMs to be well-versed in NA service practices and principles. RCMs should be closely acquainted with the Twelve Traditions and Twelve Concepts and the fundamentals of service in our fellowship. Familiarity with all published service manuals and bulletins puts the resources of the whole fellowship at the RCM's fingertips. RCMs should carefully study the reports from their own areas' groups, officers, and Subcommittee chairs so that they can pass their areas' experience on to others at the regional meeting. RCMs will be more effective contacts between their areas and the regional committee if they take time to talk personally with other participants in their area committees. That way, they can get a better idea of what needs and concerns the regional committee should address.

- 16.8.1. 3-year uninterrupted clean time at time of election.
- 16.8.2. Willingness to commit to a 2-year term of service.
- 16.8.3. Familiar with all NAWS approved handbooks (Public Relations, H&I, Literature Committee, etc).

- 16.9.2. Willingness to commit to a 2-year term of service.
- 16.9.3. Familiar with all NAWS approved handbooks (Public Relations, H&I, Literature Committee, etc).

16.10. ASC Archivist

The ASC Archivists have an important role in the EANASC as guardians of the memories and records that shape the identity of various groups and the service structure. Like any other service activity, the primary purpose is to carry the message of NA. Archival work is more than mere custodial activity; it is the means by which we collect, preserve, and share the heritage of our fellowship. NA members have a responsibility to gather and take good care of the fellowship's historical documents and memorabilia. Minutes and reports from the EANASC and its Subcommittees, correspondence, records, photographs, newspaper, and magazine articles from the past need to be collected, preserved, and made available for the guidance and research of NA members for now and for generations to come.

- 16.10.1. 3-years uninterrupted clean time at the time of election.
- 16.10.2. Willingness to commit to a 1-year term of service.
- 16.10.3. Familiar with all NAWS approved handbooks (Public Relations, H&I, Literature Committee, etc).

21. Grievance Procedure

The Tenth concept is our fellowship's guarantee of respect for the individual trusted servant. This concept may seem self-evident, but our belief in the principle involved is so strong that we want to say it loudly and clearly. Narcotics Anonymous is a spiritual society, with high ideals for how we treat each other. Our members, however, are only human, and we sometimes mistreat one another. The Tenth Concept is our spiritual society's promise that if one of us is wronged in the service environment, the aggrieved trusted servant may ask that the wrong be made right.

The Tenth Concept's guarantee of the right to appeal for redress of a personal grievance is designed, in part, to protect those who exercise their Ninth Concept responsibility to speak their mind in service discussions. Together, the Ninth and Tenth Concepts support an atmosphere in which our members feel free to express themselves frankly on matters at hand. This open atmosphere in which our members feel free to express themselves frankly on matters at hand. This open atmosphere is essential in developing an effective group conscience. If, after having demonstrated the courage of their convictions, individuals become the subject of reprisals initiated by those who have disagreed with them, the Tenth Concept allows them to petition the appropriate service body for redress of their grievances. Thus, the respect of our service structure for the rights of the individual NA members is guaranteed. In a fellowship such as ours, whose success is based upon mutual support and cooperation, that kind of respect for the individual is indispensable.
